

E. Rose Kasweck

Attorney

Rose is Florida native, born and raised on Florida's beautiful Space Coast. She graduated from the International Baccalaureate Programme at Cocoa Beach High School in 2006. She then went on to attend the University of Florida, earning her Bachelor of Arts in Business Administration in 2010 and her law degree in 2013, both with honors. Rose previously interned for the Office of the Brevard County Attorney, gaining experience in many areas relating to local government law. For her work serving the community, she received the Pro Bono Certificate of Outstanding Achievement from the Levin College of Law, in recognition of over 105 hours of Pro Bono work completed. After graduating law school and becoming a member of the Florida Bar, Rose joined Fasig | Brooks as a member of our medical malpractice litigation team.

Education

- University of Florida, Levin College of Law, Gainesville, Florida, 2013
- J.D., Juris Doctor, cum laude
- University of Florida, Warrington College of Business, Gainesville, Florida, 2010
- B.A., Bachelor of Arts, Major: Business Administration, cum laude

Professional Associations and Memberships

- Florida Justice Association, Member
- American Association for Justice, Member

Bar Admissions

- Florida, 2013

Areas of Practice

- Medical Malpractice